

5

Tips, Tools and Resources

The Project Team has developed a set of informative resources that are intended to help water users in Utah pursue market-based solutions to water management challenges, from the initial concept development through regulatory approvals and implementation. This section outlines some of the “tips and tools” generated from the project. These resources are provided in appendices to this Report and are available on the Project website: water.utah.gov/water-marketing.

